

SUMMARY OF NEWS.
—(Child killed in New York on yesterday, at 1.40 p.m.)
—The Republicans of New York have elected the Hon. William A. Darling for mayor.
—The heirs of Anne Jane, who claim the Trinity Church property, met at Poughkeepsie, on Wednesday.
—It is denied that Farnes, as Secretary of the Treasury, has proven a defaulter.
—It is reported that Secretary McCulloch recently tendered his resignation, but at the request of the President, withdrew it.
—General Grant has decided that Colonel Belger can not be reinstated in his position as the Quartermaster's Department.
—Secretary McCulloch, it is understood, will recommend the issue of a new consolidated five cent coin.
—Whisky men are again urging the removal of Commissioner Rollins.
—A fire occurred at the corner of John and Oliver streets, Cincinnati, Wednesday night, destroying a bedstead factory and several small buildings. Loss about $30,000.
—The son of Bishop McVane, of Ohio, was married yesterday to a daughter of Bishop Lw. of Delaware.
—Mr. E. A. Pollard, the historian of "Lee and his Lieutenants" was yesterday, in Baltimore, attacked by John and Douglas Wise, a son and nephew of Henry A. Wise. He was shot through the arm. It seems that the Wises came to Baltimore from Richmond, to express to the author of the book, a letter of commendation written by him in reply to one from Henry A. Wise, on the (Pollard's) history of the war.
—An artillery school is to be established at Fortress Monroe.
—A negro was hung at Elizabeth today for the murder of another negro. The culprit made a dying speech declaring him to have been the cause of the crime.
—Notwithstanding the sky was obscured by clouds and a full moon, a fine meteoric display was visible at New York, Chicago, and other points, between three and five o'clock yesterday morning.
—The Pacific Railroad was, on Wednesday, opened to Cheyenne, and a grand jubilee was held by railroad men and citizens.
—Tennessee State Teachers' Association has memorialized the Legislature to inaugurate the normal school system.
—A meeting of veterans was held in Cincinnati, on Wednesday, to secure the equalization of bounties.
—Daniel O'Connell, one of the editors of the Pittsburgh Dispatch, has instituted proceedings against the proprietors of the Sunday Leader, to recover $20,000, for defamation of character.
—A man named William Jackson, fell or leaped from a window of the Granville House, in Memphis, on the 12th, and was killed.
—The Crisis, a weekly democratic paper in Columbus, is to be published daily.
—The wife of the Hon. James W. Nesbit, United States Senator, died on the morning of the 9th, in the city of Oswego.
—The Judiciary Committee's investigation have elicited nothing bearing on the question of whether Maryland has a republican form of government or not.
—Investigation is to be resumed in a few days, when General Grant will be called on as a witness.
—Secretary Wells is still in a critical condition, although his symptoms are somewhat better. General Skinner has recovered, and is again at his post.
—The President has suspended John W. Patterson, assessor of internal revenue of the Fourth District of Virginia, on the charge of misconduct.
—William Neville has recovered a verdict of $80,000, in the case of common pleas, Cincinnati, damages for an injury received in 1861, on the Ohio canal, on the Cincinnati and Indiana Railroad, by his horse taking fright at a passing train, and throwing him down an embankment.
—A suit has been commenced in the Court of Common Pleas, in Franklin county, Ohio, to compel the Cincinnati Gas Company to pay its assessment for the salary and expenses of the State Gas Inspector, which it refuses to do.
—From State America we have the intelligence that the field generals have agreed to terms of peace, and sent them to their respective governments for confirmation. The allied army is to evacuate Paraguayan territory, and the Brazilian fleet the Paraguayan waters; Lopez to resign and go to Europe for two years.
—A fire in Louisville yesterday morning destroyed property to the amount of $60,000.
—Three hundred freedmen left Augusta for Charleston, yesterday, for the purpose of emigrating to Liberia.
—The Democrats of New Hampshire have nominated J. G. Sinclair for Governor.

Arrival of Steamer.

Reception of Staff Officers by the Holy Father.

Paris, November 14.—Previous to the departure of the French troops from Rome, the Holy Father received the staff officers in body at the Vatican, and the Pope, who was dressed in a most feeling manner, he expressed his happiness at having the soldiers of France under his roof, but he never had his happiness been so great as now, because of the present peril which he has been exposed to. He returned thanks to the officers, to France and to Emperor Napoleon for his services.

Paris, November 14.—The steamer ship, the "Albatross," arrived from the Holy Father.
